Sewing Sisters

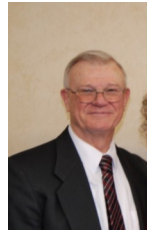

The sewing ladies meet at 10 am on Saturdays, and all skill levels are welcome.

Thanks so much to all who have been helping in this good work.

Do You Cook?

Our "Manna Ministries" ladies are needing help with providing meals for a couple of families who need some TLC. If you can help provide a meal or two, or deliver meals, please contact Teri Stevens or Elaine Jones. Thanks!

Thank you!

We want to thank Willis Lindholm for his 30+ years faithfully serving as one of our deacons here in Richland. Willis and Marjorie have been integral to the congregation here since their conversions after "John Cook knocked on their door one day". They have worked with our teens, taught classes, planned fellowships, and served in many other ways. Willis has filled many rolls as a deacon, including overseeing the building and grounds and working with missions, which has been his passion. He and Marjie traveled to Peru as a part of a group from this congregation, and helped start a congregation in the town of Piura. Willis is retiring from the work of deacon, but we know he will continue, along with Marjie, to serve the Lord with great faith.

New Member

We welcome Robin Watson back into our midst, as he has indicated he wants to be working part of the Richland church. Robin was born in Charleston, SC, and as his dad was in the US Navy, Robin traveled with his family to several different posts, mostly growing up in Virginia Beach, VA and S. Omaha, NE. Robin came to the church when he attended a service where the lesson was on the restoration of New Testament Christianity, and just using the Bible. He had been looking for that, and went on to attend the 2 year program at East Tennessee School of Preaching in Knoxville, where he was baptized at the Karns Church of Christ. He has worked with churches, teaching and preaching on occasion over the years, and participated in We Care campaigns. Robin spends time in different parts of the country, as he has a mother who lives in Georgia, a brother in Alabama, (his sister in St. Louis recently passed away), and 3 children and 2 grandchildren who live in the Tri-Cities. He enjoys martial arts and music (plays the guitar), and is an avid Bible researcher. He is currently working on a book about early church history. If you don't yet know Robin, be sure to meet him and welcome him to the family here.

Transition Team News

The Transition Team will be conducting interviews via Skype this afternoon and next week. We will bring in candidates (or not) based on the results of these interviews. Two new candidates sent resumes this week and we will set up Skype interviews with them as arrangements can be made. Notes from the last meeting are on the back table. (Interviews will be today at 1 pm and at 2 pm. The congregation is welcome to sit in and listen to these. There will not be an opportunity at this time to ask questions, only to listen.) There will also be skype interviews next Sunday afternoon, the 19th.

A Big Thank You to Naida Melior, Vicki Contini, & Sandi Gray, for all their help in assembling the new directories!

New Directories!

There are new directories available on the back table. Please limit the color copies to one per family. If you need a second one for the car, office, etc. Please make that 2nd one a black and white copy (also on the back table).

Corrections: The directories out now have had these corrections made, but if you picked up a copy last Sunday, the address for the Caldwells needs to be changed to 1909 N. Rd. 76. Please put an asterisk beside Allison Mendoza's name, as she was baptized last July! Also, on the deacon's page, Greg Hadler has an extra phone number that should be deleted. Bob Harman's number was inadvertently added above Greg's. The McGiltons have now been included in the directory also— and there are labels on the back table for you to add to your directories. Thanks!

Do not love the world, nor the things in the world. If any one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1 John 2:15
